President's Message

Fellow Congregants,

This will be the last message I send to you as President. It has been a most extraordinary couple of years that we have shared together. Yes, there certainly were some difficult moments, but I will leave with only positive memories. In particular, I will take with me the pride I felt every day seeing the deep commitment and love that all of you showed for Beth Sholom.

I am extremely delighted and grateful that longtime congregant, Ruth Lefton, will be succeeding me as President. In her career as an executive in the healthcare industry, Ruth demonstrated a remarkable ability to build a team as well as to create consensus among many disparate groups. I cannot wait to see how she brings those strengths to bear at Beth Sholom. With Ruth and the newly elected Officers in charge, I know that I can comfortably return to the “bench” with the full confidence that our Congregation is in very good hands.

In closing I wish to thank all of the many people who supported my efforts over the last two years. That list starts with Rabbi GK, Robin Minkoff, and Cantor Agar on the professional side and certainly includes all of our Officers and Board of Directors in lay leadership. You have touched my life in more ways than I can count.

All the best,

Herb Sachs
President

Featuring a Wine-Tasting with Dr. David Bernat!

Join us on Saturday, June 4, for a night of learning!

This year’s Tikkun Leil Shavuot will be hosted at Congregation Adath Jeshurun and sponsored by Beth Sholom Congregation, Congregation Adath Jeshurun, Congregation Kol Ami, Keneseth Israel, and Old York Road-Temple Beth Am. It will begin with mincha at 7:00 PM.

Our tradition imagines Mt. Sinai as a great wine cellar with rows of wisdom and commandments that we accept with love and joy. As Shavuot celebrates the giving of Torah at Mt. Sinai, we’ll begin our evening of learning with a wine program. David Bernat, Ph.D., our guest scholar and oenophile (wine expert), will guide us in the art and science of wine appreciation and wine-food pairing. We will sample four world-class Israeli wines, with appropriate snacks, and be spiritually and gastronomically transported to the Holy Land. At the same time, our immersion into Israel’s wine culture will open a window to the history of our homeland from ancient times to today. Be prepared for an experience that will excite your palates and enrich your souls.

Learning sessions will continue at 9:00 PM with Rabbi Leah Berkowitz of Congregation Kol Ami, Rav Shai Cherry of Congregation Adath Jeshurun, Rabbi David Glanzberg-Krainin of Congregation Beth Sholom, and Rabbi Robert Leib of Old York Road Temple–Beth Am. They are free and open to the public.

Advanced registration is required. The cost is $18 for members of sponsoring synagogues* and $36 for the public. To register, go to https://www.adathjeshurun.info/form/Tikkun_2022.html or scan the QR code at the right.

*Beth Sholom Congregation, Congregation Adath Jeshurun, Congregation Kol Ami, Reform Congregation Keneseth Israel, and Old York Road-Temple Beth Am.

A lesson from Wawa as the summer approaches: Hold the door open for others, and they will open doors for you!

Why is that the wisdom of Wawa? Think about the doors at your favorite Wawa: How do you get into a Wawa? You have to open a door. Now think about most supermarkets you go to: How do you get into the store? An electric eye senses your approach and the doors open automatically. So why does Wawa make us open doors ourselves?

The answer, according to the research teams at Wawa, is that when people have to open doors manually, they invariably hold the door open for others — usually for perfect strangers. This small action is a way of establishing a human connection in an increasingly depersonalized world. Moreover, the researchers at Wawa learned that not only did people enjoy being kind in this way, but they found people who experienced a kindness as they entered a Wawa were actually happier; and customers, it turns out, tend to spend more money! Encouraging people to do a small act of kindness for another not only makes for happier customers, but makes for increased sales as well.

Wawa’s insight is in keeping with the results of the well-known Harvard study of Adult Development which impressively studied a large cohort of people over a lifetime. These types of studies are rare because they are hard to carry out and expensive. But the results of this study led to one clear overall conclusion: good relationships keep us happier and healthier. The study’s director, psychiatrist Robert Waldinger stated the results of the research in one sentence: “The lessons showed us that a good life is not about wealth or fame or working harder and harder. The clearest message that we got from this 75-year study is this: Good relationships keep us happier and healthier. Period.”

The calm of summer is a good time to remember the importance of prioritizing relationships. It turns out that people who are more socially connected to family, to friends, to community, are happier, are physically healthier, and they tend to live longer than people who are less well connected. So take some time this summer to re-invest in relationships — both the important ones and the seemingly less important ones.

It turns out that we all want to walk through a door that is being held open for us — both for the people that we love — and for the perfect stranger who is doing us a kindness at Wawa!

May you have a summer of open doors!

What is Jewish music?

This question is one that musicologists have tried to answer for decades, and ultimately one that is rather subjective. Since 70 CE, when the Jews were expelled from the Land of Israel, Jews have lived dispersed in countless countries and cultures throughout the world. This affected every aspect of their life and culture, and of course also their music.

Jews living in Western and Eastern Europe developed a style of Jewish music distinct from the Jews living in Spain or Arab countries. What sounds like “Jewish music” to one culture of Jews is vastly different from what it sounds like to another diaspora.

To compound the problem, music from the time when Jews were in one place, in the Temple days, was not written down and has been lost (perhaps for eternity though who knows what future scholarship and science might uncover). Therefore, we today have little to no knowledge of the sounds our ancestors heard. We have descriptions in the Psalms and other parts of the Tanakh of the choirs and various instruments used in the great Temple, and we also have descriptions of different genres of songs. But we have no idea what they may have sounded like.

Scholars, however, have identified certain melodies as being very ancient and perhaps from the Temple days. One of these is the melody we use for Shirat Hayam (Song of the Sea). Abraham Idelsohn (the father of Jewish musicology) discovered in the early 20th century that this melody is present in a variety of Jewish diasporas, with very slight differences and rhythmical variations. This led him to conclude that it must come from a time when the diasporas were together, in the land of Israel.

Scholars also believe that early Christian Gregorian chants contains Israelite melodies and musical chants. This would make sense as the earliest followers of Jesus (Yeshua) were Jews.

One chant, called the Tonus peregrinus, has been identified as being very likely of Israelite origin. In Gregorian chant, this melody is sung to the words of Psalm 114 “In exitu Israel de Aegypto”, also known as “B’zeit Yisrael mi’Mitzrayim.” The melody is about 2000 years old, and appears in both Jewish music and Gregorian chant.

A recording of it can be found here. Skip to 1:30 in the video for the beginning of the melody:

A Word From Our Executive Director
Robin Minkof

Dear Beth Sholom Community,

It’s practically summertime, and with the sunnier days and warmer weather, our staff is already dreaming of and planning for the High Holiday season. This year, Erev Rosh Hashanah falls on Sunday, September 25th, and we look forward to gathering with you in person in the Main Sanctuary and at home via livestream for services and programs throughout the Hebrew month of Tishrei. We will share with you the many details about the High Holidays several weeks from now.

In the meantime, the renovations to the offices and classrooms on the first floor of our Administration Building which began in April are moving forward. Our Main Office is being subdivided to create a new Conference Room, our Mail Room and Room 102 are being transformed into staff offices, and our Library is being redesigned to provide offices for the Rabbi and Executive Director of our nesting neighbors, Congregation Kol Ami. Other renovations are in the early planning stages, and I look forward to sharing information about them when the plans are confirmed.

On another note, three of our staff members will have retired by the end of June: Susan Weinberg, our Controller for 31 years who will be honored during Kabbalat Shabbat services on June 10th at 6:00pm; Bernice Schwartz, our long-time Assistant to the Preschool Director; and, Ellen Kovnat, our Preschool Bookkeeper. Each in her unique ways has contributed to building the vitality of Beth Sholom Congregation and our Brodie Family Early Learning Center, giving of their time and talents and sharing their warmth with our community. May Susan, Bernice, and Ellen go from strength to strength!

Wishing you a healthy, happy, and safe summer,

Robin

P.S. How are you? You and your families remain at the forefront of the minds of our staff. Our names and phone extensions are listed through this issue of Connections, at the bottoms of our congregation-wide emails, and on our website. To reach me about any matter, please call 215-887-1342 x107 or send me an email at rminkoff@bethsholomcongregation.org. We want to know how you are and we want to support you, always.

The staff is talking about...

SUMMER

Julie Atchick — Any ice cream – my feeling is there are good ice creams and great ice creams, but no such thing as bad ice cream!

Robin Minkoff — I love to eat cold fresh or frozen cherries on a hot summer day – and I don’t even mind the pits!

Jan Nossbaum — Summer is my favorite food season with so many fresh fruit and veggie choices! If forced to narrow down my top choices I would chose a juicy ripe peach, lightly grilled, served warm with melty vanilla ice cream! My other top choice would be farm picked sweet corn, grilled, and indulgently slathered with butter and salt. They both are super easy to prepare and remind me to be thankful for all the bounties of the season.

Andrea Otto — Not for nostalgic reasons, but my favorite summertime treat is lemonade. For some reason, I find the stuff addicting. I also am a sucker for any kid who sets up a lemonade stand!

Stacey Salsman — Kohr Brothers ice cream on the Ocean City, NJ boardwalk because that means it’s really summer!

Terry Straus — My favorite summer food is peaches. I look forward to the summer when I get to eat them.

Eileen Weingram — One of my favorite summer “foods” is fresh Johnson’s popcorn from the Ocean City, New Jersey boardwalk. A visit to the shore is not complete without a walk on the boardwalk and this yummy treat!

Emily Wright — My favorite summer food is Thrashers French Fries from the Ocean City, Maryland boardwalk with Malt vinegar sprinkled on top.
Welcoming New Members

As a community, one of our most important goals is to be warm and welcoming to new members and invite them to fully participate in our congregational life. There are many points of entry to our congregation, including Men’s Club and Sisterhood, as well as introductory Adult Education classes and social action projects. We are developing ways to connect volunteers with needs in the community, so please stay tuned for more information! We also hope that YOU, a fellow congregant, will help to make Beth Sholom a second home for new members. Here are some ways you can help:

Smile and Say Hi! This can go a long way and takes little effort.

Invite them to an event or program. Do you help with Cook For a Friend? Maybe you enjoy the Center for Spiritual Well-being programs. When you see a new family, let them know what you enjoy doing at Beth Sholom and invite them to join you next time.

Sit with them. It can be intimidating to join a table of strangers at Kiddush, so make sure to make space at your table!

Host a Shabbat Dinner for a new family. Sharing a meal with your family will create a connection that can last a lifetime.

Make a Connection. When chatting with new members, try and learn about their talents, passions and hobbies. If you don’t know others who share similar interests, share the information with the office staff and they will help to find a connection within the community.

As we strengthen our new member welcome initiatives, we hope that everyone will help smooth the path for new members to feel comfortable and at home at Beth Sholom!
Beth Sholom Preservation Foundation
Awarded Prestigious RACP Grant

We are pleased to announce that through the Redevelopment Assistance Capital Program of the State of Pennsylvania, The Preservation Foundation has been awarded a grant of $2,000,000 toward the repair of the dome. This is a wonderful development which underscores the value the state places on our iconic building.

Announced to the press in late April, the state allocated these funds to support Beth Sholom’s preservation efforts. “As a National Historic Landmark, I am pleased to see the commonwealth invest this funding into our synagogue,” said Herb Sachs. “Our goal is to ensure the synagogue can still be used as a place of worship and future generations can continue to appreciate the architectural designs of Frank Lloyd Wright. We are grateful to Representative Napoleon Nelson and all who helped secure these funds.”

This award was the direct result of efforts by our local state representatives who spent many hours pushing this grant across the finish line. A special thanks goes out to our Board member Marcel Groen for his work in focusing their attention on our project. Also, we wish to recognize staff member Andrea Otto for her work in writing the grant proposal.
Dear Parents:

As your child enters the next step in their Jewish education, we are excited to invite them to become part of Etgar, the collaborative elementary educational experience for the children of Beth Sholom and Adath Jeshurun Congregations.

Etgar will enrich your child's relationship to Jewish learning, Jewish life, Jewish values and Jewish community. Our educational goals and curriculum will provide a solid foundation for your child's lifelong Jewish learning.

Our teachers are experienced in providing the best education possible; our faculty are seasoned educators who have been sharing their love of Judaism for many years, and have a unique understanding of the needs and learning abilities of younger children.

Our program goals:

• Know the basics of Hebrew reading, prayer, history, culture and ritual so that our students see themselves as an integral part of continuing the Jewish story.
• Learn sacred texts and stories so they can integrate Jewish values into their lives and today's world.
• Understand Jewish history as a way to understand the past and move forward in a meaningful way.
• Reaffirm the importance of a Jewish homeland and part of the lives of all Jews.
• Learn about the importance and practice customs of the Jewish holiday cycle.

Our pedagogy:

• We want our children to have Jewish life in Jewish time. We integrate Shabbat and holiday experiences into the school curriculum, which means holding Shabbat school once a month so that families will experience Jewish life in Jewish time.
• We respect learning differences and tailor learning to each student's visual, auditory, reading/writing, kinesthetic needs. Because our children are technologically savvy, we incorporate technology as an additional modality of learning.
• Use both online texts and hard copy textbooks to reinforce class experiences and help parents understand their child(ren)'s learning and progress.
• Education model: Teachers use a multi-faceted text-based approach, combining frontal and experiential learning.
• Most texts offer online and app access.

Emphasis on Hebrew:

• Decode and read Hebrew with confidence and competence. Learn basic vocabulary/concepts based on Hebrew as a Heritage Language.
• Familiarity with the text of the siddur and an understanding of the prayers • Incorporate Hebrew into all parts of learning, including snack time, where students learn Hebrew months, days and holidays, Milat HaShavuah (word of the week), Birkat HaMazon and Hatikvah.
• Offer concierge Hebrew taught by Israeli teachers with 1:1 weekly sessions to 5th through 7th grades
• Hebrew across curricula linking biblical vocabulary with prayers, keywords and spoken Israeli Hebrew.

As Director of the Etgar Experience, I welcome the opportunity to discuss Etgar in more detail. If you would like to contact me, feel free to email me at jatchick@bethsholomcongregation.org or call or text me at 215-740-7991 so I can share my passion for Jewish education with you and your family.

Warmly,

Labyrinth Walk
Sunday, June 12 at 10:00am
Holy Family College
9801 Frankford Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19114
In case of rain, walk will be rescheduled TBD.

Join us as we meander a single path leading to and from a center for a Labyrinth walk. Labyrinths are ancient dating back 4,000 years or more, used symbolically as a walking meditation.

A traditional labyrinth is a pilgrimage meditation to perceiving yourself as existing in wholeness and wellbeing... It is also often undertaken as a meditation upon moving from inner wilderness to wholeness, to pure awe and respect for Creator and Creation and one’s place within the whole and within the holy.” — Rabbi Goldie Milgram

Wednesday, June 1 @ 7:30pm via zoom
Open Board Meeting and Installation of Officers.

Meet Ruth Lefton, nominated as the next President of our congregation. All women of Beth Sholom are invited. Bring your ideas and let’s get reaquainted!

It is an honor to be writing to you as I complete a successful first year as Men’s Club President. I want to express my gratitude to our Board of Directors and membership for electing me for a second year as club President. I thank you for your confidence and trust in me. I am excited to again serve as the President of one of the largest and most active Men’s Clubs in North America.

At our Closing Dinner and Elections on May 17, our guest speaker was Ira Cooperman, a former intelligence officer who worked with the CIA and the Air Force during the Vietnam War. He presented some interesting comparisons and contrasts between the two most elite spy agencies in the world, the CIA and Israel’s Mossad. These agencies have a long history of working together to achieve mutual goals but occasionally spy on each other. Mr. Cooperman reviewed declassified documents in preparation for his discussion of each agency’s espionage successes and failures.

During the Men’s Club elections that preceded the dinner, the following officers were unanimously elected after a very brief but highly successful campaign.

Art Lashin – President
David Cohen – Communications V.P.
Ross Klinger – Ways and Means V.P.
Bob Lankin – Religious Life V.P.
Avi Mindlin – Membership V.P.
Steve Pilchik – Steward V.P.
Jerry Salem – Programming V.P.
David Sternberg – Treasurer
Myron Goldman – Recording Secretary

The following first-time Directors were elected to three-year terms: Tony Pomeranz and Daniel Varon.

To our new Officers and Directors, I say welcome. A special thank you goes to Gary Goldberg, Myron Goldman, and Andy Shaw, who leave their officer positions this year but will certainly remain active with our Club.

To the Men of Beth Sholom Congregation – you are all members of the Men’s Club. We encourage you to participate in our various programs. We offer a special invitation to new members of our Beth Sholom family to join us in our activities and become an integral part of our Club. We are planning exciting events for the upcoming months, open to the entire congregation (per tradition, followed by noshing and schmoozing). Our calendar will be filled with entertaining programs to provide something for everyone. Ideas from the Federation of Jewish Men’s Clubs include "Hearing Men’s Voices," a series of informal discussions with a trained facilitator. Another program, "Work and Worth," covers ethics in the workplace, balancing home and work, midlife changes, reversal and losses at work, and retirement.

SAVE THE DATE | Men’s Club Opening Dinner
Thursday, September 8 – We invite all Beth Sholom congregants to join us for a great meal, catch up with old friends and meet new ones. Our special guest speaker is our new Congregational President, Ruth Lefton, who brings a fresh perspective to this challenging position. Ruth will assess the strengths and weaknesses of our synagogue and will share her vision of how we can improve what we do well and address her leadership team’s areas of concern.

As I look forward to more successful events next year, I want to thank some folks who made this an enjoyable year. First, I would like to say “Todah Rabah” to the Men’s Club Officers and Board of Directors. They are indeed the heart and soul of the Men’s Club. Also, a sincere thank you to Rabbi Glanzberg-Krainin, Cantor Agar, Robin Minkoff, and the congregational Administrative and Housekeeping staff for their continued support. All are always available and helpful when needed. They are the unsung heroes and heroines behind what gets done. Appreciation also goes to you, our Men’s Club, and congregational members for generously supporting our various events and charities. I have been consistently impressed by our members’ display of caring, community, and camaraderie. Our members come together to celebrate happy occasions and support each other during life’s difficult times. You can email me at alashin@fjmc.org if you have any questions about our religious, social, or educational programs planned for the upcoming year.

May this summer bring lots of happiness to your life.
